Lexow Committee regarding ex-Police Capts. Cross and Devery, and who is now under indictment for grand larceny, was arrested this morning by Court Officer English, of the Tombs Squad, on another charge of grand larceny.

The complainant in the case is Arnold Freedman, of 104 Second avenue, formerly keeper of a cafe at 86 Second avenue, The amount involved is 386.

Stajer, in November, 1893, bought out Preedman's cafe at 86 Second avenue for $4,200, agreeing to pay half in cash and the balance in notes. At the time of the sale the Burger Brewing Company heid a mortgage of $185 on the place.

When Stajer purchased the cafe Freedman claims to have given him a promissory note for $250 and $15 in cash to pay and annu, the brewing company's mortgage. The note in question was one which had been made by Mary Stajer, the prisoner's wife, and was given Freedman in part payment for the cafe.

Stager claimed to have turned the note and money over to the Burger Brewing Company, but Freedman alleges that he never paid the Company, Yesterday he swore out a warrant for Stager's arrest, and this morning he was arraigned before Justice Ryan at the Tombs Court and held in $1,500 bail for examination.
